SUMMARY OF BILL

This bill, among other things, would preclude an insurer of a suspended corporation from being prosecuted by the Franchise Tax Board (FTB) in a misdemeanor action if it defends an insured suspended corporation client in a civil action relating to the insurer's responsibilities to defend and indemnify the insured.

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENT

Neither these amendments nor the August 19, 1998, amendments affect FTB's programs or operations.

Considerations

The following considerations were raised in the analysis of the bill as introduced February 17, 1998, and still apply:

- Although this bill exempts the insurer from a misdemeanor prosecution, it does not provide the insurer with the express opportunity to defend the suspended corporation without actually reviving the corporation from suspended status.
- This bill applies to any suspended corporation, which is defined to include only a corporation that incorporates in California, but not foreign corporations that have qualified to do business in California. It is unclear if this is the author's intent.
